

Dear Jeanne, et al,

Please allow me to introduce myself. My name is Adam Mikesch, and I am a licensed Missouri Realtor® with Premier Farm Realty Group & Auction.

Real Estate is at a record high in the Midwest, and I currently have several buyers eager to acquire a property just like yours. If you would consider selling your property, or a portion of it, I would welcome the opportunity to discuss this very important decision with you.

It costs absolutely nothing to have a discussion regarding real estate and the current market conditions in this region.

I am available to meet in person, or you can contact me by email, phone, and text.

Best regards,
